NO MEDALS DUE FOR THIS PERFORMANCE

The net result of an expenditure of $1,181,182,850 by the Ordnance department for artillery, during the recent war, was the delivery of 72 American-made guns on the firing line, and the shipment from the United States of 409 additional guns which did not arrive until after the conclusion of the war, according to testimony developed at recent hearing before the War Expenditures committee of the House. The only guns to reach the firing line, according to officers appearing before the committee, were forty-eight 4.7-inch guns and twenty-four 8-inch howitzers. A total of 20,000 guns of all descriptions were contracted for, of which 4,082 had been finished before the armistice, but of which only 481 had been shipped, and only 72 actually reached the front.

The committee has also produced startling facts with regard to the supply of American ammunition resulting from the expenditure of $3,173,054,546. The net result of this great expenditure was 10,637,359 shells of all descriptions landed in France, little more than enough for two day's work.

AUTO RACES SCHEDULED TO OFFER "RED BLOODED" SPORT AT COMING FAIR

American sports are usually of a vigorous, "red blooded" variety, and nothing appeals to the sons and daughters of "Uncle Sam" like a contest which calls for daring, skill and speed, and in no game will be found a more perfect embodiment of these assets than in automobile racing of a type to be featured at the State Fair which will be held in Louisville the week of September 8-13.

During the two final days of the State Fair, racing events will be staged on the oval of the race track in front of the grand stand and many of the best-known stars of American and foreign tracks will go after established records with a savagery which is certain to result in surprising changes in the sport-leaders. During the 1918 campaign many established records were wiped out by Sig Rugsdahl, Fred Horey, Jules Ellingboe, Leon Durny, Ray Lamplink and others and it is expected that the contests this year will develop new points and bring the automobile features into spectacular prominence as one of the most delightful, stirring and sensational offerings of the entire celebration.

Hugdahl, who was a sensation last year with his famous Fiat Six, has practically rebuilt his car and it is said to be a genuine whirlwind now. As an example of its going quality it may be said that on last Labor Day at Lincoln, Neb., Hugdahl traveled a mile in 1.01.00 and two miles in 2:02.00, the old records being beaten several seconds in each instance. Horey has a new mount about which he is said to be secretive and in which he promises to confound his rivals.

REDUCED RATES ON ALL RAILROADS

The State Fair management is pleased to announce that a special railroad excursion rate has been secured from the Southern Passenger Traffic Committee and that from all points in Kentucky, and from Cincinnati, O., and Jellico, Tenn., one and one-half fare will be charged for the round trip where the fare amounts to 25 cents or over. Tickets will be sold from September 6 to 12, inclusive, and for trains which are scheduled to arrive in Louisville before noon of September 13, with a final limit of September 15. The colossal total of $110,000.00 is listed by the various premiums quoted in the 1919 Kentucky State Fair catalog which are now off the press and under process of distribution in Kentucky and throughout various sections of the country. Keen interest will undoubtedly be aroused among the farmers and stock breeders of the Commonwealth by the splendid awards offered and the result is certain to be one of the most brilliant and successful fairs ever held in this country.

SCIENTIFIC SCORING FOR "BABY" AT FAIR

Mothers of all kinds and classes would rise up in wrath should any one assert that pigs or pups were of more importance than their own precious offspring, but until recent years that was exactly the attitude taken by the parenthood of the country.

Great care and scientific study was devoted to the upbringing, development and breeding of stock because it was commercially productive, but baby was allowed to imitate Topsy and "Jes grow." In consequence many a little body developed wrongly, his and evils hidden from the unskilled eye waxed and grew apace and many a man or woman faced life heavily handicapped by their parents' lack of vision.

With the crusade inaugurated by Mrs. Frank De Garmo, in 1908 at the Mothers' Health Congress of the Louisiana State Fair began, however, a most important movement to give to the human infant the same scientific study that had been for years accorded to the animals and over the country swept the splendid movement which inaugurated Babies' Health Contests and Congresses at State and County Fairs and Expositions. Kentucky adopted the innovation in 1913 and instituted the first Babies' Health Contest that year at the Kentucky State Fair. The idea met with the instant approval of rural and city mothers and the contest was one of the most vital and interesting features of the entire exhibition. It has grown in interest from season to season and will again be one of the big features of the Fair in September 8-13. For information as to entry blanks, classes and examinations write for catalog to State Fair Secretary Fount T. Kremer, Suite 604 Republic building, Louisville.

LETTER WRITTEN BY UNKNOWN LOCAL MAN CAUSE OF TRAGEDY

Letter Filled With Love Now In Hands of Cincinnati Coroner Was Mailed From Maysville and Is Thought Cause of Double Tragedy.

A letter written by some one in Maysville or Mason county and mailed under a special delivery stamp from the Maysville Post Office on last Saturday at noon, is thought to have been the cause of the double tragedy in Cincinnati a few days ago when Con Gullfoyle killed his wife and then took his own life.

The letter came into the hands of Coroner Bauer from a friend of Mr. Gullfoyle by the name of Cook, who said that Gullfoyle had given it to him on Sunday and asked him to help decipher it. The letter was written very poorly and very hurriedly. Officials are unable to learn whether the signature is simply the letter "W" or the name "Joe."

It is said Gullfoyle found the letter at his wife's home on Saturday night and opening it read it. On Monday he is said to have shown his wife the envelope and she is said to have torn it from his hand and chewed it up. Friends and relatives contend that the receipt of the letter is the cause of the tragedy.

The letter as deciphered by Cincinnati officials follows:

"My Dear Una: Your letter was received this morning. The reason I was slow in writing was because I had been away two days. Really, I have been thinking that you do not care for me only to help you along. I love you, Una, and I want you to love me and tell me that you love me. I want to see you and I will come down. Una dear, if things are so that we can meet. I feel bad today, but as I have a few minutes I will send you these few lines, sweetheart. I will come Tuesday on early train. I will call you from Newport. I want to take you in my arms and hug you. I am crazy, dear, to see you. Sweetheart, I love you, but I don't think you love me any."

YOUR RED CROSS IS STILL VERY BUSY

Read What Your Dollar Is Doing

JUNIORS of today make the Red Cross of tomorrow! In the membership drive during September the Lake Division of the Red Cross wants to enroll 200,000 school children and more, to help the Greatest Mother in the World. Red Cross Juniors have an extensive after-war work to carry out.

Junior Membership is only 25 cents. It is taken out in school-room units so that every school child can be a member of the Junior Red Cross. A member of opportunity for helping other children all over the world is open to Red Cross Juniors.

Even as far away as Hawaii children busy in school all day sell coffee by lantern light at night to earn money for their Junior Red Cross. The National Children's Fund to which is contributed Junior Membership fees has a two-fold purpose.

With it, relief is furnished to suffering children throughout the world and at home community activities expressing the spirit of the American Red Cross are fostered. In a word the Junior Red Cross aims to establish international understanding and good will among all children; to provide motives for purposeful and useful school activities and to inculcate ideals and habits of service.

HOW TO JOIN THE RED CROSS JUNIORS

UPON application for membership schools are placed on the department of Junior Membership mailing list at Lake Division headquarters to receive the National bulletin issued monthly by the Department of Junior Membership at Washington.

Upon payment of membership fees schools receive certificates or renewal cards which are their receipts for membership fees for the current year.

Service to others is the appeal of the Junior Red Cross today. The public school working with the Red Cross is the natural agency for spreading a new consciousness of the humanitarian obligation of men and nations toward each other.

WILL SPREAD EDUCATION

TWO phases of education present themselves in the Junior Red Cross after-war program. One is the providing of scholarship for children of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines who wish to attend schools of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

The purpose of the scholarship is to furnish a sum of money to keep children from fourteen to sixteen years old out of industry for a few years longer than family finances permit and to make it possible for them to have added vocational training to fit them for self-support.

In this the Red Cross will be co-operating with the Vocational Board which has an extensive program well under way for providing training for disabled service men.

The other educational aim of the Junior Red Cross is to develop among children of all nations understanding of social, industrial and commercial conditions as they exist and will develop in the future.

To meet these needs the Red Cross has compiled a series of graded lessons which teachers may present to their pupils in the schools. These deal with geography, customs, occupations and other affairs peculiar to each country and are prepared to give a basic understanding of the world as it is in process of change today.

School teachers who have completed the standard Red Cross First Aid course and hold a certificate from National Headquarters will be qualified to give this instruction in their schools this fall.

NOTED CITIZENS ENDORSE JUNIOR PEACE PROGRAM

G OVERNOR JAMES M. COX of Ohio says concerning the new program: "The purpose and plan of the Junior Red Cross appeals to me greatly. Development of international understanding and good will can be given no place in a comparable measure with the undertaking among children."

"I have examined your plans with interest," writes Governor J. P. Goodrich of Indiana, "and it gives me pleasure, indeed, to endorse the proposed work of our school children to assist in relieving suffering in Europe." V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Schools for Kentucky, endorses the plan as being worth while from the material side but of greatest value from its educational side in the development of character.

Nashville, Tenn.—The Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in special session here have elected the Rev. R. L. Russell, of St. Louis, as Secretary of the Home Department.

Dr. Russell is a member of the St. Louis Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and at the time of his election was Conference Missionary Secretary of the St. Louis, Illinois and Denver Conferences. For many years Dr. Russell has been one of the leading ministers of the St. Louis Conference, presiding elder, pastor of the large churches in the city of St. Louis, delegate to the General Conference, and Missionary Secretary. In the future his office and residence will be at Nashville, and he is now making preparations to move to this city.

His successor as Missouri, Colorado and Illinois has not yet been selected, but will be named at the next session of the annual conference which meets in St. Louis on September 25th.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place, "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better. In fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble. I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists, NO-112

PART VI.

"Again it was squashes."
"We're here near the peas, Grandmother. Shall we have room? We have to have room!"

"Eyes down, Grandmother. Six seeds to a hill. Seven between hills! Then the potatoes piped up, 'We see you, Grandmother. We are in the dark. Here we are. Two eyes to a piece. Three and five inches deep in the trenches and 14 inches apart. Twenty-four inches between the trenches, Grandmother, 24 inches.'"

"Ah, ma darlins, you shall grow fat and roly-poly and pinky-brown!" she said.

"Another time, it was the corn that chorused in creamy-sweet voices. 'We're going to be tall; we know it. Five seeds in a hill; hills 3 feet apart, 1 inch deep. Three rows of hills, Grandmother.'"

"Ah, you shall have room. You shall be thinner to three in a hill. There must be room for you to grow and spread out your rustling leaves. There must be room for the beans to run up."

"Then the lima beans would wake up."

"We're by the fence, Grandmother. Eyes down are we, looking into the heart of the earth. Full of wonderful dreams is the deep, dark, life-giving heart of the earth. One inch deep are we. Four seeds to a hill. Three feet apart for the hills."

"You shall be thinned," said the old lady. "Two plants in a hill will give you room."
"It was fun to see those beans come up with their backs humped over their knapsacks, where they carried their rations."

"But what of the Silver Maid? Each night my Silver Maiden came, and each night her light grew stronger and stronger. It was by her light that I saw these things. Though we spoke no word, we seemed to draw closer and closer in thought."

"One night I saw the Dew Fairies. I had felt them around me before that, and Snow White, the Golden Girl's half-grown kitten, had seen them. She told me so. She sees in the dark, you know. I had seen her prancing and jumping into the air and leaping sideways down the garden path in the purple dusk like a furry-footed white sort of moth, and I had asked what she was playing with, and she told me."

"But on the second night of the Silver Maiden's visits I saw them. They had floating, purply, silvery, dusky robes about them that turned to pale rainbows in the white light that began to steal from the Silver Maiden. They seemed to float down through the air and to barely touch the earth. They ran on their silvery white feet, with never a sound, down the garden's rows. And from little silver sprinkling cans they sprinkled all the garden plants. Then they laughed, not in the way people do, but just as the breeze does sometimes round your ears, and, forming a ring about me, they danced and fluttered just above me in the air. Then they turned their little sprinkling cans toward me, and I saw that tiny beads of moisture were all over my raincoat, which shone in the fine white light like a coat of silver."

"So my beautiful dreams went on, each night more beautiful, for I don't know how long. In the Dream World we do not measure Time as you do. But one night the light of the Silver Maiden spread over the ground a silver flood till it wrapped me and the whole garden. She stood between the boughs of the Apple Tree with her arms outstretched. I tried to stretch my arms to her, and that fluttering was wild! Oh! Boy!"

SHANTUNG FOR JAPAN OR GERMANY IS AIDED

Specious Plea of President Made in Order to Put Through Concession Fathered by Him.

Washington, September 4.—Having admitted to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that he could not have gained the assent of Japan to the league of nations covenant if he had not yielded to its demand that Shantung be given to it, the President is now making every effort to force the Senate to accept the terms as a part of the treaty he negotiated at Versailles.

This the Republicans in the Senate are determined shall not occur, and it is possible that the issue may outlast the fight over the document itself and be taken into the Presidential campaign. By a vote of nine to eight the committee voted to restore the great and prosperous province, containing forty millions of souls, to China instead of Japan. Germany had taken it by force. Later John Hay, as secretary of state, agreed with China to maintain the "open door" and to protect her territorial integrity. So did the European powers. The committee takes the view that that agreement should be carried out, and that China should be protected against the aggression of the Japanese, known as the Prussians of the Far East, in order that democracy thrive of autocracy may in the future invade in Asia and that therefore the interests of the United States may not be menaced on the Pacific ocean.

The President made a hurried trip to the office of Senator Swason, of Virginia, to impress it upon him that the refusal of this country to ratify the Shantung provision in the treaty would be in the interests of Germany, as this would mean a longer delay in the actual Senators deride this reasoning as specious and beside the mark. They declare that the peace has already been made with Germany except in a very technical sense, and that "German propaganda" talk is silly. They resent the Shantung provision as a violation of the Republic of China and as a weak and ionexousable surrender to that power which means to dominate Asia with an iron hand. They therefore let it be known that they will amend the treaty to this extent, if no other and that the onus will not be upon them for so rejecting it but upon the President for having made a nefarious deal which needs to be stricken out of the treaty on moral grounds. Senator Lodge and his Republican colleagues on the Foreign Relations Committee, explain that they have no intention of defeating anything in the treaty other than that which is palpably wrong and imperils American rights.

It is suspected in Washington that President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George failed to include Mexico in the league of nations in order that the United States might at the proper moment enter and clean up the country. It would not have done to discuss self determination and the rights of small peoples in one breath and then let the world know in the next that this principle applied to other peoples but not those near at home. It is possible that the "proper moment" may come when it is to the best interests of the Democratic party in the next campaign. Just now it might seem inconsistent to fight Mexico while Democratic Senators are giving voice to the idea that the league of nations is to stop all bloodshed for all time.

TIME IS THE TEST

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time. Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? Below is testimony such as the sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well." (Statement given January 9, 1912.)

RESULTS THAT REMAIN
Over four years later, or on November 14, 1916, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent."

The President has asked a penalty for the punishment of profiteers. Already in the act of August 19, 1917, there is a section which prescribes that "any person who willfully hoards any necessities shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not exceeding $5,000, or be imprisoned for not more than two years, or both. Necessaries shall be deemed to be hoarded, within the meaning of this act, when either held, contracted for, or arranged for by any person in a quantity in excess of his reasonable requirements for use or consumption by himself and dependents for a reasonable time, held by a manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer or other dealer in quantities in excess of the reasonable requirements of his business, or withheld by any process for the purpose of unreasonably increasing or diminishing the price." Why Central Can Not Answer Questions

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

When in response to a question, the operator says: "I will give you Chief Operator," she is obeying her instruction.

If you cannot find what you want in the telephone directory, ask the operator for "Chief Operator" and she will connect you with the "Chief Operator" where your questions will be promptly answered.

MINERS DISREGARD APPEALS OF GOVERNOR TO DISPERSE

Armed Miners in Cabin Creek District On March to Mines Where They Think Organization Is Refused.

Charleston, W. Va., September 6.—Despite pleas of Governor John J. Cornwell last night that they return to their homes, 500 armed miners left Oak Grove this morning and started to march across the mountains to Coal River, where, it is said, they plan to force unionization of mines.

On top of a trunk used to hand provisions, and surrounded by hundreds of miners, the moonlight glinting on their rifle barrels, Governor Cornwell asked the miners, as American citizens, to be American citizens and preserve order. He asked them to disband and return to their homes, informed them that he would do all in his power to aid them, and said that he had called a meeting of operators and mine officials to discuss a charge that the miners were refusing permission to organize at Guyan. The governor told them that he had proof that propaganda intended to incite them had been spread among Cabin Creek miners, and that there was no verification of a report that miners had been shot down by guards at Guyan mines, or that women and children were being killed. Rumors and reports of which Governor Cornwell spoke spread through the Kanawha district, yesterday, and many of the mines were closed.

In the course of his appeal Governor Cornwell was interrupted frequently with cheers and at the conclusion of the address he departed amid volleys of rifle shots fired by the men in his honor.

NEW YORK PLANS GREAT WELCOME FOR GENERAL PERSHING

Commander of American Forces to Arrive in New York Monday Morning—Great Welcome Planned.

New York, September 6.—A radio message received here today by the naval communication service from the transport Leviathan, which is bringing home General Pershing, stated that the ship was due to reach Ambrose Lightship at 4 a. m. Monday and would dock at 8 o'clock.

New York will give Pershing and the First division a reception which will long be remembered. The Board of Aldermen has set aside $100,000 for the expenses, and declared next Wednesday a holiday. This will make a total of $550,000 which will be spent by New York on the home-coming heroes. A grand stand along Fifth avenue will seat 30,000 of the relatives of the soldiers, General Pershing will lead the parade on his famous charger Kidron, which he rode in the Paris and London reviews. The French "75" which fired the first American shot in to the German lines is here on exhibition at the public library, together with the First division colors.

A shower of telegrams from women's organizations all over the country will greet General Pershing, Miss Elsie Janis, actress and member of the Mayor's committee of Women to welcome the general, has announced. She said she had telegraphed newspaper editors, women's clubs and other civic organizations, from coast to coast, urging that they request the women of their communities to send expressions of their greetings to her for presentation to General Pershing after the parade. An effort will be made to include in the general's programme, a reception to him by a thousand members of the American Legion.

"Mrs. Keach Tells How She Got to Know Rat-Snap."

"Have always feared rats. Lately noticed many on my farm. A neighbor said he just got rid of droves with RAT-SNAP. This started me thinking. Tried RAT-SNAP myself. It killed 17 and scared the rest away." RAT-SNAP comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Mike Brown, J. Jas. Wood & Son, M. C. Russell Co.

TRAINING FOR SOCIAL WORK IS BEING OFFERED THIS YEAR

A Real Kentucky Course in Social Welfare Work Will Be Offered by the University of Louisville.

Young men and women of Kentucky, this year for the first time in the history of the State, will have an opportunity for special training in the new profession of social work, thru the course in Applied Sociology just established in the University of Louisville, and scheduled to open Wednesday, September 10.

The demand for trained workers in Red Cross Service work, public health nursing, playground work, community recreation, probation and Associated Charities work far exceeds the supply. Not only would young Kentucky people, trained in this school, have positions open to them in this state, but other states, particularly throughout the South, will look to this new training course for social workers south of the Ohio and west of the Alleghenies, excepting a small school of Dallas, Texas.

This training course will be a real Kentucky course, not a formal schedule brought in from outside. It will include training in Kentucky's rural problems and in the organization of small communities, with actual practice work in the country districts and small towns; as well as training in all the other branches of social work. The head of the course, Dr. N. J. Ware, has wide teaching and social experience (and, incidentally, was a lieutenant in the famous Canadian regiment, the Princess Pats, during the world war); and he will be assisted by lecturers experienced in all of Kentucky's welfare problems.

Students, who have graduated from high school, may take the full four-year course in the University of Louisville, graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Social Science. On the other hand, people who do not want this degree, may take the special courses in various kinds of social training and receive certificates of the ground they have covered.

More than that, the Kentucky Conference of Social Work, which has a working relationship to this training course, will conduct a registry of positions open in social service throughout the state, so that students who have secured special training may go into suitable work with the least possible loss of time and expense. Social service positions at from $75 to $125 a month and over are going begging because of lack of people to fill them; students taking this course would be in line for them.

Young people interested in going into social work in a professional way and wanting additional training are invited to correspond with Dr. John L. Patterson, dean, University of Louisville, 119 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

DIVISION'S RED CROSS QUOTA IS ANNOUNCED

Cleveland, Ohio, September 5.—The Lake division's quota in the third roll-call for universal membership in the American Red Cross, from November 2 to 11, is $1,880,000.

This announcement was made today by Campaign Manager Mackenzie R. Todd upon his return from a conference at national headquarters. The national quota is $15,000,000. The Lake division includes Red Cross chapters in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Mr. Todd said the after-war activities of the Red Cross would include: Nation-wide promotion of public health and extension of the nation's nursing resources; extension of facilities for disaster relief; completion of relief measures for war victims in this country and overseas; increasing assistance to the army and navy in proportion to the increase in the standing army authorized by Congress, and uniting the children of all nations under the Junior Red Cross.

REDFIELD RESIGNS FROM CABINET

Washington, September 5.—William C. Redfield, Secretary of Commerce, has tendered his resignation to President Wilson, and it has been accepted, effective November 1. This was announced today officially.

Secretary Redfield, in announcing his resignation, said he had found it necessary to give immediate attention to personal business affairs.

LOCAL BANKER HIGHLY HONORED AT MEETING

Mr. N. S. Calhoun, Vice President of the Bank of Maysville, Is Elected Chairman Executive Committee State Bankers' Association.

Mr. N. S. Calhoun, local banker, has been signally honored again this year by the bankers of the State of Kentucky at their annual meeting this week at Louisville by his being selected as chairman of the Executive committee of the State Bankers' Association.

Mr. Calhoun was elected a member of this Executive Committee last year and his services have proven so valuable to the organization and therefore to the bankers in all parts of the state that he was elevated to the chairmanship of the committee. Mr. Calhoun is one of the most progressive young bankers in the state and is rapidly coming into prominence among them. With such a progressive young man at the head of the Executive committee of the state organization, we predict a great year for them.
